

New York State Outdoorsmen Hall of Fame

Yearly Membership Dues

Any person interested in perpetuating a mechanism to honor sportsmen-conservationists truly given back more than they have taken; willing to honor a Code of Ethics requiring members to adhere to the highest professional standards as established by the members of the association; and dedicated to promoting the philosophy that it is the responsibility of all sportsmen and women to consistently give to their respective sport as well as receive may become a member of this organization by payment of the stipulated annual dues. Members are strongly urged and encouraged to actively take part in NYSOHOF-sponsored events, and to financially support its fundraising efforts.

Individual Members shall be kept informed of the progress, activities, and endeavors of this association by means of a quarterly newsletter. This shall be the official publication of the N.Y.S. Outdoorsmen Hall of Fame. All annual individual memberships shall be in effect for one calendar year, beginning January 1st.
